The story behind the constellations

Perseus and Andromeda

Have you ever looked up at the stars and wondered the stories the constellations have to tell?
This is the story of Perseus and Andromeda...

Andromeda's mother thought she was the most beautiful in the land, and, at every opportunity, she told her people so...

returned home to much celebration and ruled together.
When their time on earth was up, they were placed in the heavens where they would be together for ever. To this day, you can still see them gazing down...

Fed up and jealous, the sea nymphs had had enough, they once again wanted to be the most beautiful in the land.
They knew their father Poseidon, King of the seas, would not be pleased.

"I curse this land to a never-ending flood. I speak directly to the queen when I say, the only way to save your people is to sacrifice your precious Andromeda to my monstrous kraken, the choice is yours..."
