

Year 3—Monet

There were so many boats to choose from. Katie clambered into one and decided to row down the river a little way to look for the perfect view.

Katie looked around, but the gallery seemed empty. "Over here, ma chérie!" said the voice. It seemed to be coming from a picture called In the Woods at Giverny. Katie saw that Grandma was snoozing, so she stepped through the frame and into the painting!
